

GOES TO SAVE WIFE IN HAREM

Armenian Returning to Turkey to Seek Captive Family.

In an effort to rescue his wife from a Turkish harem, where she has been held captive for about four years, Assdour Derboghes, an Armenian of Racine, Wis., will sail from here this week for Turkey, the Near East Relief, which is assisting him in his task, announced last night. Derboghes came to the United States from Harpoot, Syria, in 1911, returned to rescue his family in 1914 and was seized by the Turks, but escaped through Siberia to the United States.

Three daughters, aged 10, 12, and 14 years, were seized at the same time as his wife, and are believed also to have been sent to Turkish harems, and the father has little hope of finding them. A son, Hovenes, escaped with his father and is now in school at Waukegan, Ill.

The New York Times

Published: January 26, 1920

Copyright © The New York Times