Armenian Student Shoots Former Turkish Grand Vizier, Held Responsible for Massacres

ASSASSIN UNDER ARREST

Storngestones Tel1s of Talaat as "Big Boss" and Blames Him for Atrocities

BERLIN, March 11—A young Armenian student, named Gypsi by his captors, has been accused of killing Talaat Pasha, former Grand Vizier of Turkey, in Berlin, 15 or 16 days ago, and of harboring other like-minded men. The student, who was arrested last evening under heavy guard, is reported to have confessed his guilt and that of his associates.

The investigation, which is being conducted by Inter- and Post and Telegraphs, in May, 1920, after the fall of the Young Turks, shows that Talaat Pasha was murdered in April, 1920, by an Armenian student, named Gypsi, who was reported to have been instructed by a political party in Constantinople to kill him.

Talaat, who was a member of the Young Turk party, was known to be a friend of Enver Pasha, the brother of Talaat, and was one of the key figures in the Young Turk movement. He was known to be a supporter of the Young Turk government and was a strong advocate of the Young Turk policy.

The student, who was reported to have been instructed by a political party in Constantinople to kill Talaat, was reported to have been waiting for Talaat in the hotel where he was staying, and to have been instructed by the political party to kill him.

The investigation shows that Talaat was killed by an Armenian student, who was reported to have been instructed by a political party in Constantinople to kill him. The student, who was reported to have been instructed by a political party in Constantinople to kill Talaat, was reported to have been waiting for Talaat in the hotel where he was staying, and to have been instructed by the political party to kill him.

The investigation shows that Talaat was killed by an Armenian student, who was reported to have been instructed by a political party in Constantinople to kill him.

The investigation shows that Talaat was killed by an Armenian student, who was reported to have been instructed by a political party in Constantinople to kill him.

The investigation shows that Talaat was killed by an Armenian student, who was reported to have been instructed by a political party in Constantinople to kill him.

The investigation shows that Talaat was killed by an Armenian student, who was reported to have been instructed by a political party in Constantinople to kill him.